

ABOUT VOLUSIA:

Volusia County, on the coast of Florida, is a rapidly growing progressive area. With over 61,400 students and 8,200 employees, Volusia County Schools is the state's fourteenth-largest district and one of the top employers in the county. Volusia County offers multiple higher education options, including Daytona State College, University of Central Florida, and Stetson University

Looking Ahead:

Volusia Schools needed to save time with user-friendly technology to manage multiple lines of coverage and HR vendors for their employees. In the future, Volusia Schools expects their technology needs to change, however, they know their benefit administration system doesn't have to.

About primeBENEFITS:

Imagine a world where the stress of paperwork and complicated procedures is minimized and replaced with an automated, user-friendly system that simplifies the onboarding, enrollment, and benefit administration processes.

That's exactly what primeBENEFITS provides. With our configurable and automated solution, employers can enjoy an efficient and streamlined employee benefit process with reduced labor and maximum benefit plan value. Our system seamlessly integrates with employer and employee-funded insurance plans and eliminates the manual administration process to ensure maximum efficiency.
